

What did you like about your former job?

What did you not like about your former job?

What triggered your idea to change jobs or go into a different field?

What would you like to achieve at your next job?

What are you going to do differently this time?

What do you hope to gain from the change?

If you were to take one step toward achieving your dream, what would you do?

What will be different for you after you have found your new job?